Re: Log # 1049645

Dear Ms. Sanchez:

On Saturday, January 7, 2012, [REDACTED] picked up a certified letter that was addressed to me from the Independent Police Review Authority, City of Chicago. It was dated December 23, 2011 and had your name, Jessica Sanchez, Log Number 1049645.

The letter stated "falsely," that I had registered a complaint on October 28, 2011 for you to investigate [REDACTED]. I reiterate, I never asked you or anyone from the Independent Review Authority to investigate anything.

I'm writing you to request a copy of the alleged complaint because I do not know what it says. In addition, I want you to send me the copy by "certified mail" as you have done with your letter dated December 23rd for the purpose of arranging an appointment.

The complaint, what it says and if it bears my signature or not will determine the next step, regarding arranging an appointment with you.

I look forward to hearing from you, Ms. Sanchez, upon receipt of this letter.

Sincerely,

Re: IPRA Subpoena (12-015)

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

Pursuant to the Municipal Code of Chicago 2-57-050, you are hereby required to appear at the office of the Independent Police Review Authority (IPRA), located at [REDACTED] on March 19, 2012 at 11:00 AM, to provide a statement as referenced in the attached subpoena. Please be advised that, pursuant to Municipal Code of Chicago 2-57-130, your refusal to cooperate with the subpoena may result in severe penalties, including a $1000 fine for each day your refusal to cooperate continues. If you are unable to appear at our office on the above-listed date and time, please call Investigator Jessica Sanchez at [REDACTED] immediately so other accommodations can be worked out.

Enclosed with this correspondence is your appearance fee. You may cash or deposit the appearance fee check only after you have provided the statement and received approval from the investigator handling this case. Cashing or depositing the check before providing your statement to IPRA is not permitted, and your failure to comply with this condition could result in significant legal penalties.

If you have any questions, please contact me immediately at (312) 746-3609.

Sincerely,
